Mayor Proclaims *Public Service Recognition Week

May 4-10 Recognizes Public Employees

SEGUIN, Texas – Mayor Don Keil has proclaimed May 4-10, 2014 as Public Service Recognition Week in the City of Seguin. The proclamation was presented on the steps of City Hall on Tuesday, April 29.

Nationally celebrated the first week of May since 1985, Public Service Recognition Week (PSRW) is time set aside to honor the men and women who serve our nation as federal, state, county and local government employees. The theme for PSRW 2014 is “Proud to Serve.”

“Our public employees are essential to the success and productivity of our community,” Seguin Mayor Don Keil said. “Government can only be as good as the men and women who work for it and there are great people working for the City of Seguin.”

The City of Seguin employs 337 people on both a full-time and part-time basis.

About the City of Seguin

Seguin, Texas is located along Interstate 10, about 35 miles east of San Antonio. Seguin is big enough to boast a top-rated university and a state-of-the-art hospital. More than 25,000 residents enjoy a range of cultural, recreational, and employment opportunities. Seguin’s robust diversified economy features a steelmaker, a manufacturer of automotive parts and plants making roadside mowing equipment and building materials. In 2009, Seguin was proud to be selected by Caterpillar as the site of a major new engine manufacturing facility.
